Who can be a member of KOVA?

Membership is open to any individual, organization, or student committed to addressing the needs of crime victims.

Anyone who qualifies as a crime victim (any person who suffers direct or threatened physical, emotional, or financial harm as the result of the commission or attempted commission of a crime against such person) is eligible for a one-year dues-free membership.

What is the Kansas Organization for Victim Assistance?

Mission: KOVA is dedicated to protecting the rights of crime victims and prevention of victimization through advocacy, education and leadership.

- ☀ Encourage and support the development and continuation of victim services throughout the state.
- ☀ Assist in the exchange of information and ideas relevant to victims of crime.
- ☀ Extend help to other community-based victim support groups and improve the efficiency of KOVA members, law enforcement personnel, other members of the criminal justice system, and the interested public in responding to the needs of victims of crime.
- ☀ Promote cooperation and concerted action on policies and programs which effect victims of crime and KOVA members.
- ☀ Develop and present educational materials and events for public and professional information.
